SENATE ADOPTS THE CUBAN AND PHILIPPINE AMENDMENTS.

Vote on the Spooner Beclaration Was Forty-Five to Twenty-Five.

HOAR WAS ONE OF NAYS.

Avalanche of Passionate Oratory Preceded the Final Action.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The Senate to-day adopted, by a vote of 45 to 25, the Spooner Philippine amendment to the army appropriations bill. It was a party vote, with the exception of Senator Hoar (Rep.). who the exception of Senator Hoar (Rep.), who voted with the Democrats, and McLaurin (Dem.), who voted with the Republicans. The Cuban amendment was also adopted, the vote being & to 2k

Not since the enactment of the resolu-tions declaring a state of war to exist be-tween the United States and Spain has here been such an avalanche of passionate at the session the army approprintion bill was under discussion, the con-troverted questions being the Spooner Philippine amendment and the Piatt Cuban amendment. Both amendments were de-nounced as vicious and pernicious legisla-tion, subversive of the principles of this Government and unparalleled in the hist ry of legislative enactments. Senators Turner of Washington, Tillman of South Carolina, Pettigrew of South La-kota, Hoar of Massachusetts, Teller of Colo-rado, Mallory of Florida, Lindsay of Kentucky, Culberson of Texas, Jones of Arkan-sas, Allen of Nebraska and others addressed the Senate, all of them denouncing the pro-

TO EXTEND THE CONSTITUTION. TO EXTEND THE CONSTITUTION.

Mr. Teller gave notice of an amendment to the Philippine section, as follows:

"That the Constitution of the United States is hereby extended over and declared to be in force in the Philippine Islands so far as the same or any provision thereof may be applicable."

His purpose in offering the amendment, he said, was to ascertain whether those who say the Constitution does not extend over the Philippines are willing that it should extend over the islands. He had no idea that the United States ever would surrender the Philippines.

that the United States ever would surrender the Philippines.

Mr. Pettigrew made a vigorous attack upon the Philippine amendment, particularly, declaring that it would encourage "jobs" and "schemes" for the advancement of interests of those "on the inside." He read letters and papers concerning the connection of Lieutenant Colonel Heistand of the Adjutant General's department with a proposed company to control the hemp-product of the islands. He read the charges made by Major Hawkes against Heistand and others in the War Department.

PETTIGREWS STRONG LANGUAGE.

PETTIGREW'S STRONG LANGUAGE.

Mr. Pettigrew contended that no legitimate efforts were being made to prepare the Philippines for civil government, and no declared that the barbarities practiced in the Philippines by our forces had been equaled only by those of the "civilized armies at Pekin."

"I hope," he said, in conclusion, "that this country will see the infamy of its course and turn its back upon a policy which has already covered it with shame and disgrace."

Mr. Turner of Washington, continuing his speech of last night, criticized the Spooser amendment as a departure from the American system—the first departure in the nistory of the country.

"It is an extraordinary proposition," he declared. "To my mind, it is a monstrous proposition, which no party ought to countrance for a moment. We may well tremble for this country, if the proposition of the Senator from Wisconsin be adopted, for we will not only have a Czar in the Philippine Islands, but a Czar in the United States, before it shall pass out of existence."

notable speech of the day was delivered by Mr. Bacon of Georgia. He had been thoroughly aroused by reports that the Democratic members had been induced by questionable means to withdraw their opposition to the proposed provision, and he passionately branded as a libel upon honorable men and Senators any and all such statements. Personally, he declared, he would defeat the amendments if he could, although he realized the majority would have to accept the responsibility for them. His arraignment of the administration for "coercing" Congress into enacting such provisions in the closling hours of the session was sensationally fierce, and he declared that the only possible object of such action was "that the plunderers and vultures" might have an opportunity to prey upon the prostrate land of the Filipinos.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas said he would vote against the Cuban amendment because it seemed to reserve the right of the United States to betervene in Cuban affairs whenever the Government does not suit the purpose of the United States. This was in direct contradiction to our pledge to the people of Cuba. He also criticised the right claimed to it for regulating the sanitation of Cuban cities. He was willing to say that the amendment was far better than he had expected, for he had for months been apprehensive that the party in power would desire to maintain a real protectorate over Cuba. He contradicted all reports that there had been any agreement to vote upon the army bill.

MANY AMENDMENTS REJECTED. MANY AMENDMENTS REJECTED.

A vote then was tuken upon the amendment of Mr. Vest, providing that the action of this Government or its officials in the Philippines shall be subject to the legislation and laws of the United States so far as they are applicable. The amendment was rejected—24 to 65.

Mr. Rawlins offered an amendment declaring it not to be the purpose of the United States to hold permanent sovereignty over the Philippines. Rejected: Ayes, 28; noes, 45.

Mr. Bacon offered an amendment to limit the grant of power to March 4, 184. Rejected: Ayes, 28; noes, 46.

Mr. Pettus of Alabama offered an amendment providing that every person in whom

All military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the Philippine Islands acquired from Spain by the treatles concluded at Paris on the tenth day of December, 1898, and at Washington on seventh day of November, 1900, . shall, until otherwise provided by Congress, be vested in such manner as the President of the United States shall direct for the establishment of civil government and for maintaining and protecting the inhabitants of said islands in the free enjoyment of their liberty, property and religion: Provided, That all franchises granted inder the authority hereof shall contain a reservation of the right to alter, amend or repeal the same. authority is vested under this grant of power shall take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States. Rejected—25 to 41.

Mr. Teller then offered his amendment providing that the civil government established in the Philippines shall be so ordered as to secure for the inhabitants thereof he fullest participation consistent with the safety of the Government. Rejected—25 to 33.

Mr. Teller then offered as an amendment a provision of the act establishing the Missouri Territory in 1812 that all lines shall be moderate, no ex post facto laws, etc. Mr. Teller said that as the officials in the Philippines were not to be required to take an eath to support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution and laws were not to be made applicable, he offered them to protect the people of the islands. It embodied pretty good Republican doctrine, said he, in the days when it became a law. It was rejected—25 to 41.

When it looked as if the vote was about to be taken the venerable Massachusetts Senator, Mr. Hear, arose.

"There is one principle of constitutional liberty not yet siain," said he, "and I will give it a chance to-night." He then offered an amendment providing that so official of the Philippines vested with legislative power, and vice versa, "to the end that the Government might be one of laws, not men." The amendment was resociated syes, 25; nays, 42.

At last the decisive moment arrived. It was now 10:29 p. m. The Senate had been in session continuously since 11 o'clock this morning. The vote was taken upon the amended Spooner resolution, which was adopted—ayes, 45; nays, 27.

Cubas Amendment Adopted.

Mr. Morgan declared the Cuban proposition was a piece of arrant hypocrisy. The position we were to assume toward Cuba would jussify England in slaying the Boer people in South Africa under the claim of suzeralnty. The amendment in effect proposed an American suzeralnty over Cuba.

Mr. Jones's motion to amend the amendment was defeated: Yens 21, nays 43.

Mr. Foraker of Ohio, a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, rather startled the Senate by proposing an amendment to change section 3 in effect as suggested by Mr. Jones in his amendment. Much as he disliked to differ with his colleagues, he said, the more he thought of it the more he was convinced that the language of the third section was unfortunate. He pointed out that it might lead to complications, and urged the acceptance of his amendment, but it was defeated: Yeas, 31; nays, 42.

The vote was then taken upon the Cuban amendment and it was agreed to, 41 to 29.

Several amendments were voted down and the bill was passed: Yeas 42, nays 18.

Mr. Allison of lowa reported the sundry civil appropriation bill. The Senate then, at 1 o'clock, adjourned.

House Finally Acts on Three Big Appropriation Bills.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The House had a busy day of routine, agreeing to the conference reports on the fortification, District of Columbis and the Military Academy bills, the last named containing the antihazing legislation.

The naval appropriation bill was sent hack to conference after the defeat of a motion to concur in the Senate's provision for three more submarine torpedo boats.

Beveral bills for statues were disposed of by parliamentary maneuvers. The revenue cutter bill also received a reverse, the House adjourning when an effort was made to take it up. Early sessions begin in the House to-morrow.

SENATE ADOPTED THE RESOLUTION.

Question of Limiting Cook Coun ty's Representation Passed by a Bare Majority.

East St. Louis Republicans At tempted to Secure Gates's Influence for a Straight Party Ticket.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Sprinsfield, Ill., Feb. 77.-The Senate, by bare constitutional two-thirds vote, adopted the McKenzie resolution, submitting to the people the question of limiting the replature to one-third the total membership. The Senators, excepting Senators Cole Democrats, signed an agreement to trans pertionment, but Mr. Trautmann tens has he and Chamberlin will vote for the bill in the House.

The virtual adjournment of the Senate over next week, and the fact that Governor Yates and many prominent Republicans will go to Washington libsure a dull week in the House. It is not believed a quorum will be present on any day during the week. County Clerk George H. Thomas of Belleville, who also owns the East St. Louis Republican, came up last week with Mr. Skking and one or two other Republicans to enlist Governor Yates' influence in a scheme for a straight Republican ticket in East St. Louis at the April elections. They returned, and, I am told, started the chory that they were successful; that the Governor would not make any appointments from St. Clair County until after the spring elections, and inferentially gave out the impression that those who were opposed to a straight Republican ticket would be disciplined by the State administration. It seems that the East St. Louis Republican organization is opposed to putting up a Republican ticket. Its leaders are Henry Rader, Congressman Rodenberg, Representative Trautman and Postmaster Fekete. Every time they show their Republican Leads the good Democrats crack them, with plenty of votes to spare. The only way they can get their paws in the trough is by covering their Republicanism with a cloak called "Citizens" party," or "People's ticket," and that's what they propose to do this year.

This is not what the honest George

McKenzie's Speech.

McKensie's speech.

Senator McKensie's resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment which will limit Cook County's representation in the Legislature to one-third of the members, was taken up as a special order. Senator McKensie made a strong speech in favor of the resolution.

"It has been asserted that this resolution," said he, "was a club to be used in forcing the Cook County members into doing certain things on apportionment. Others have asserted that it is the result of a jealous spirit on the part of the country members, and that it is introduced in the spirit of malice. I desire to say, that I believe it to be to the best interest of the people of the State. It did not spring from the loins of jealousy, nor has it been nurtured on the pap of malice. We country members have no feeling of antipathy to Cook County. Our argument is that Cook County is only one of 102 units. In my fudgment, seventeen Senators can represent the Interests of that county fully and fairly in the Senate, and fifty-one Representatives can fully represent Cook in that body. Unless this limitation is put upon the representation of Cook the country members will lose their influence in the Legislature, and I hope that they will stand together. The chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee is opposed to this and is undertaking to create the impression that it will be for the interest of the Democratic party to defeat this proposition. I do not believe that any country Democrat will be fooled by this argument. The time has come for us to forget that we are fartisans and to stand together. "Regarding the argument that the representation should be based entirely upon population, I desire to say that the concentration of population in a small territory is a condition which has been taken into account before in limiting representation. New York for many years has had a limitation of this sort.

"The people of Illinois are watching this resolution and woe be to the men from the country who does not stand with them. He will be branded as a traitor to the interests of the people of this State, a traitor who turned his back upon the people when the time came for him to vote for them. He may as well put a rope around his neck and hang a mill stone on it and go over and jump in the Ohio River as vote against this resolution."

Senator Juul's Reply.

"I am amazed," said Senator Juul (Rep.)

senator Juni's Reply.

"I am amazed," said Senator Juni (Rep.) of Chicago. "that any such argument as has been advanced in support of this resolution should be mode in the Senate of the State of Illinois. It is true that there is precedent for this action. New York has taken such action. The same thing was done in Paris and Victor Hugo has told of it under the title of The Story of a Crime. I desire to ask the Senator from Jo Daviess whether this Assembly should represent lands and cattle or should represent fiesh and blood. If the Government of the State of Illinois is formed for the purpose of teking care of the lands and cattle alone, I suppose that this resolution is right, but if this is a representative Government to represent the people of the State of Illinois, the proposition to discriminate against the people in a certain section is outrageous. Senator Davidson (Dem.) of Newton spoke in favor of the resolution. There seems, said he, "to be considerable misapprehension regarding the purpose of this resolution. The gentlemen from Cook County are arguing the question on the theory that the Senate is about to deprive Cook County of representation in the General 's sembly. This resolution does not do anything of the sort. It simply proposes the submission to the people of Illinois of the question of changing the basis of representation. The people of this State are the source of all political power. This is one of the questions they have the right to pass on, and by the adoption of this resolution we submit the question to them."

Senator Davidson spoke eloquently and logically and at some length.

Mahonery Opposed. Senator Junl's Reply.

Mahoney Opposed.

Senator Mahoney (Dem.) of Cook spoke against the resolution.

"I do not believe this resolution was introduced here to aid in the passage of the Republican apportionment bills. It is introduced for the purpose of pandering to the people of the country, and not because there is any general demand for this resolution. The adoption of this resolution will block any other proposed amendment to the Constitution, and I do not understand how members who favor the election of United States Senators by direct vote and who demand a new revenue system can vote for this measure."

"In the name of the Lord," demanded Senator Milchrist (Rep.) of Chicago, "what has Cook County done that it should be discriminated against in this manner? Don't we pay our taxes? Do we use up your reverue? Do Busse, Campbell and Mahoney carry red flags that you want to put through a resclution like this? What are you afraid of? That's what I would like to know. I desire to say that there is in Illinois something that is much more dangerous than Cook County. It is the appropriation-eating institutions and their organization outside of Cook County. It starts over in Jo Daviess and it runs down into McDonough and over into Kane and Dekaib, and all the way down the S'ste and back again up through Coles and Champaign and Kankakee. But it misses Cook. There is a cancer for you. But I won't call it a cancer, though it is a ring that is eating up the revenues of this State. There are a lot of leeches around these institutions, and if I had my way they would be killed off."

Senator McKenzie closed the debate. "Effert is made here to invoke the spirit of partisanship in this discussion," said he." It is an editying spectacle to see the honorable editor of the Chicago Tribune act in unison and working hand in hand with Hir key-Dink' and other statesmen from the levee to defeat this resolution. It is delightful to see the warrior statesman from Cook County (Senator Milchrist), the venerable veteran who hates a Democratike he does a rattlesmake, clasping hands with the leader of the Democratic side, attempting to show that this is a partisan affair. The members from the country may not he as polished as those from the city; they may not have the command of language and the education and the refinement of gentlemen who lives out on the prairie where the wind fans his face until it is brown generally has more or less common horse sense, even though full force and effect of this amendment."

Resolution Adopted.

The resolution was adopted, M ayes to 12 nays, exactly the constitutional two-thirds in the affirmative. Senator Templeton of Princeton was the only country member to vote nay. All the Cook County Senators present voted in the negative. The affirmative votes all came from the country. Senator Fowler was the only country absented. He would have voted aye.

The Senate confirmed the appointment of William Jayne of Springfield as a member of the State Board of Charities, and General James S. Martin of Marion as Trustee of the Carbondale Normal.

Senator Davidson's bill, to amend the act in relation to wills, by providing that bequests made for charitable purposes within thirty days of the death of the testator shall be void, unless death be caused by accident, was put upon its passage, but met with strong opposition from Senators Dunlap and Mahoney. The bill was finally recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for amendment.

Senator Mechan's bill, to abolish road commissioners in counties not under township organization, was ordered to third reading without opposition.

Senator Chapman's bill to establish boards of health in counties not under township organization was also advanced to third reading.

The House Appropriations Committee acted favorably on the bill to appropriate $10,027.18 to reimburse persons for cattle slaughtered under direction of the Live Stock Commissioners, in pursuance of the tuberculin test, after deducting $600 claimed by Doctor B. A. Pierce of Union. The reason given for deducting this amount was that Doctor Pierce had instigated the investigation and created much dissatisfaction among the farmers, and it was sought to punish him by refusing compensation for the cattle slaughtered that belonged to him.
